DIGITAL DANGERS:

When Online Chats Turn into Manipulation or Violence Against Our Youth

Learn Live from the FBI
Thursday, November 6
5:45–8 p.m.

at the Arcadia Middle School Cafeteria

Learn How to Keep Kids Safe Online

Our children are growing up in a digital world—and not every online “friend” has good intentions.

Join FBI experts for this exclusive, one-night-only event to learn how predators use online chats, games, and social media to manipulate youth—and what caring adults can do to stop them.

This presentation includes frank discussions on sensitive topics and is intended for parents, guardians, and school staff only. Please do not bring children.

Why Attend?

- Understand the latest online threats targeting children and teens
- Hear real-life cases and prevention tips directly from the FBI
- Connect with other families and educators who care about student safety
- Staff attendees can earn Professional Learning (PL) hours

Don't Miss Out!

THIS EVENT CANNOT BE RECORDED SO
PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND LIVE.
